Advance Deposit Agreement

_____ Litter _____ Pick

I understand refunds for deposits will not be given until litter is born and is ONLY after viewing puppies in person or by pictures/video a return deposit will be given. I further understand that once I chose a puppy from the litter, deposit then becomes non-refundable and will fall under the same agreement stated below.

I understand that deposits are NOT refundable for any reason. I further understand if the puppy I chose develops any health issues while in the care of seller. I will have a choice of three options (1.) Accept a price cut offer from seller (in some situations seller may offer a price cut if the condition is minor). (2.) Exchange puppy for another available puppy of equal value in the same litter. (3.) Apply deposit to a future puppy of equal value in another upcoming litter.
